5. Overall

5.2) Additional comments concerning this course.

- A lot of this cisco course can be learned online. Its a good class for 'self-teaching' which is good if you are working and going to school
- I enjoyed the opportunity to learn under Professor Al-Rawi and felt his lecture style combined with excellent demonstrations of the material throughout was extremely beneficial in cementing the important skills we were expected to learn. I am looking forward to taking another course that he teaches as I am confident it will be just as fulfilling in learning these critical networking skills. A huge thank-you to Professor Al-Rawi for answering questions and helping the class out with difficult assignments.
- You are very patient. Your knowledge is amazing. I learned a lot from your class. It has been 2 years + since my last Cisco Class and I am not sure I would have caught up and been successful in a different class.
