Works on Paper

Fearful that ye may live and go in and possess
 the Good Land unto that which ye track you

Consuming all things that are here
 When I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought And on the future that I had foreseen to be
 And I gave my heart to know wisdom
 And the reason of things
 And to know the wickedness of folly Even of foolishness and madness
 The which was vain to
 That I might often that which hath been already done
 The in vain wisdom is much grief
 And hath increased knowledge sorrow
 When said it in my heart Better than the beginning of a thing is the end thereof
