WEATHER ON THE MOVE

Workshop Leader: Harlan Brownlee

4:00 – 7:00 p.m., Tuesday, November 29

JCCC Carlsen Center Polsky Theatre

Workshop for Educators of Grades 3-6

Harlan Brownlee combines his training as a pilot and a choreographer to create an interactive exploration of weather for students and teachers. Participants learn strategies that relate motions of the body and elements of dance to the structure of the earth's atmosphere, cloud formations, and the dynamic exchanges of heat and pressure that create wind and weather conditions. Participants should wear comfortable clothing for movement. Box dinner is included. There is no fee for this workshop.

Bio

Harlan understands the transformational power that the arts have to improve the quality of life for individuals and the community. Brownlee has worked for thirty-one years in the arts education field as a performing artist, educator, and arts administrator. He is the Chief Executive Officer for the Kansas City Friends of Alvin Ailey (KCFAA). KCFAA makes dance accessible to all people, teaching young people critical life skills through dance, and modeling interracial and multi-cultural community partnerships. From February 2009 to July 2015 he led ArtsKC - Regional Arts Council as the President and CEO, developing community partnerships dedicated to insuring access to the arts and cultural development for the region. From 2005 to 2009, he served as the Executive Director for Kansas City Young Audiences, a non-profit dedicated to engaging all youth in the arts, promoting creativity, and inspiring success in education.

Mr. Brownlee is on the Kennedy Center's National touring roster for the Partners in Education program and has conducted master classes, workshops and residencies extensively in the Midwest and throughout the United States.
