

Spring 2016
Egyptology Classes at
Johnson County Community College

Sign up for the following Continuing Education courses at 913-469-2323 or www.jccc.edu.

- Mon 7-9pm 03/07/16-04/25/16 Egyptian Art II CRN 20704
This course is a chronological exploration of the history and developments in Egyptian Art with a focus on form, context, symbolism, changes over time, and museum exhibits. The required textbook is: Egypt: 4000 Years of Art by Jaromir Malek, Phaidon Press, 2003.
- Tues 7-9pm 03/08/16-04/26/16 Egyptian Hieroglyphs I CRN 20717
Learn how to read and write in the hieroglyphic language of the ancient Egyptians. Topics include the alphabet, pronunciation, vocabulary and simple grammar. The instructor has a Graduate degree in Egyptology with a specialty in ancient Egyptian language and literature. The required textbook is: Hieroglyph Detective: How to Decode the Sacred Language of the Ancient Egyptians by Nigel Strudwick, Chronicle Books, 2010.
- Wed 7-9pm 03/09/16-04/27/16 Ancient Egyptian Literature CRN 20736
Uncover the challenges, triumphs, religious beliefs, philosophical ideas, and daily experiences of the ancient Egyptians from the writings they left behind. Class readings include myths, adventure stories, autobiographies, historical accounts, love songs, and more; all texts are in English, and the instructor will provide cultural and historical information to enhance understanding of the literary works. The required textbook is: The Literature of Ancient Egypt: An Anthology of Stories, Instructions, Stelae, Autobiographies, and Poetry; Third Edition, edited by William Kelly Simpson.

For more information, contact Egyptologist Stacy Davidson at sdavid22@jccc.edu or visit her blog at blogs.jccc.edu/sdavid22.