

Faculty Award
for Leadership in Service Learning

This award recognizes exemplary contributions of instructors to students, colleagues, Johnson County Community College, and the community through the advocacy and practice of service learning.

Nominations Due: April 16

Submit to Community Based Learning, COM 201

Name of Nominee:

Title of Nominee:

Dept/Division of Nominee:

Name of Nominator:

Date:

Please attach a separate sheet (or sheets) to explain your reasons for making this nomination. You may choose to address some of the following questions, but you are welcome to list any characteristics and observations that describe or exemplify your nominee's service-learning leadership.

As specifically related to their efforts and achievements in service-learning:

Has this individual demonstrated professional excellence and innovation?

Describe your nominee's commitment to:

- Student learning and development
- Civic engagement and responsibility
- Professional development
- The JCCC student learning outcome: "Demonstrate an understanding of the broad diversity of the human experience and the individual's connection to society."

For more information, contact: Tara Karaim, tkaraim@jccc.edu, ext. 3570