How to Create an HCIS Student LinkedIn Headline

It is easy to develop your LinkedIn Headline as a new student with this step-by-step strategy using key skill words and pikes (the character above the backslash key: |.

When you are a new student, feel free to use any of these headline suggestions:

- Healthcare Information Student
- Your Next HCIS Superstar!
- Health Information Specialist
- Health Information Enthusiast

Or feel free to be creative. This is what one alumna has on her LinkedIn profile:

> I am a Healthcare enthusiast! From cost to care; From EHR to EMR; From support to service; From operability to interoperability everything about healthcare intrigues me.

Next, consider adding your work experience or skills. Separate the skills by using pikes (the character above the backslash key: "|")

Certified Bilingual Healthcare Interpreter | Healthcare Information Systems Student

Or:

Patient Care Administration | Health Information Systems Student| Strong Technical Acumen

As you continue through the HCIS Program, consider adding HCIS Key skill words to your LinkedIn Headline as you complete your courses. Add whatever you would like and use your preferred words and phrases; some possible suggestions are listed below:

Health Information Systems | Healthcare Data Analytics Skills| Cerner EHR Millennium Fluency |

Healthcare EHR Regulatory Compliance | Technical Support & Integration| Tableau | Multiple Health IT Software Systems | Workflow Analysis & Redesign | HIPAA Compliance Proficiencies | Digital Healthcare IT experience | Experience in EHR Management |Healthcare IT Support Experience|

You can also add other skills or awards:

Critical Problem Resolution | Team Leadership & Direction |
JCCC Honor Society |Technical Project Management | Recipient of XXXX Scholarship Award for 2021-2022

Bilingual Analytic Health Information Systems Student | Experienced Registered Dental Assistant | Cerner EHR Millennium | Health Information Systems | Healthcare Data Analytics Skill | Workflow Analysis & Redesign

As you complete the program and start your job search, include more personal branding information in your headline. Please see the examples of LinkedIn headings and summaries.
